AD LECTOREM.

NE morem antiquum violem; nec eos qui aliquid pro more in veſtibulo dicendum expectant, intempeſtivâ ſapientiâ ſeu moroſitate fruſtrem: paucula quædam, tam de ſuſcepto opere, quàm de meis ad id ſuſcipiendum rationibus hîc præmittam; à poſteriore, non ineptè tamen aut præpoſterè, incepturus.

1. Annus jam agitur pene vigeſimus, ex quo in reverendi, & tam ob eximiam ejus eruditionem, quàm magnam erga me benevolentiam, nunquam à me ſatis celebrati viri, D. Merici Caſauboni, Iſ. F. (verè venerabilium in noſtrâ tunc temporis inſigni & florente, nunc autem horrendâ Novatorum rabie, * Culmerianâ ſcil. feneſtrarum, ſepulchrorum & ornamentorum violatione, miſerè deformatâ Eccleſiâ Cantuarienſi Canonicorum Canonici digniſſimi) intimam, jucundam & ferè quotidianam conſuetudinem & amicitiam, pro ſingulari quâ eſt humanitate, feliciter admiſſus & receptus ſim. 2. Sic igitur ad ſtudium illud proſequendum porrò incitatus, omne exinde otium tempuſq; contrivi, quoties feriari à vocatione meâ licuit, (vocatione, inquam, ſatis honeſtâ & laudabili, quamvis infœlici, mihiq; perniciosâ, temporum mutatione, jamdudum exploſa, ac penitus abolitâ; Eccleſiaſtico forenſi ſcilicet:) in monumentis Saxonicis cujuſcunque generis, ſive MSS. ſive typis impreſſis, undecunq; à me conquirendis, ſtudioſe diligenterq; evolvendis atq; lectitandis. Quibus omnibus ita comparatis, in eis, ut diximus, evolvendis multum temporis conſumpſi: eadem majori delectatione, vel diligentiâ neſcio, iterum iterúmq; perlegendo.

3. Alia, plura quidem alia, Saxonica extare monumenta ſatis ſcio, tam in publicis utriuſque utriusque apud nostrates Academiæ Librariis, quam in illis, magis privatis licèt, mihi tamen (singulari nobilium Custodum erga me humanitate) non minùs publicis & parentibus: Cottonianâ sc. (quæ una instar omnium, in hoc quidem genere:) Arundellianâ, Hattonianâ, Seldenianâ, Devnesianâ, Ashmolianâ, &c. quorum monumentorum quædam vidi, in manibus habui & inspexi: nec ea tamen exscribere necessarium duxi: partim quòd tam multis & amplis, unius hominis labor, aut otium non facilè sufficeret: partim etiam quod in illis tam multis, & quà materiæ varietate, quà scriptorum ætate diversis, non aliam tamen linguam, non alia ferè verba, quàm in illis quorum copia mihi erat, (haud paucis & illis & multiplicibus) reperturum me, mihi persuadebam. In qua opinione postea non parum confirmatus sum, comparatis quibusdam vocum Saxonicarum collectionibus, in modum Dictionarii digestis, illa scil. Laurentii Noeli, alteraque Johannis Jocelini, (à D. Simondo Devnesio, Baronetto, verbatim exscriptâ) præter quasdam alias antiquiores in illustri illo & nobili antiquitatum & cimeliorum tum externorum tum domesticorum Thesauro, D. Thomæ Cottoni, Baronetti, Roberti F. bibliothecâ; qui cum istis plerisque (ut liquet ex citationibus:) quibus ego carui, monumentis usi sunt, nulla tamen aut perpauca proferunt & exhibent verba, quam quæ mihi in meis occurrerant.

4. Certè idem Noëlus, diligentissimus ille investigator antiquitatis, atque eo nomine à doctiss. Lambardo celebratus, talem habuit dictionum Saxonicarum sylvam, qualem sub Vocabularii Saxonici nomine (uti Cl. Camdenus, aut quisquis alius author fuerit libri Reliquiarum Brittanicarum sub ejus nomine volitantis, pag. 23. satis insinuat:) in lucem emittere cogitavit: sed (quâ occasione, quove fato prapeditus, omnino nescius sum:) quod cogitaverat, ad exitum non perduxit. Constans quoque fama est, nec à vero abhorret, eidem Jocelino, RR. Cantuar. Archiepiscopi, Parkeri, cui fuit ab Epistolis, motu & instigatione, idem in animo fuisse; cujus collectanea Noëlianis illis erant longè pleniora: sed, ut prior morte sublatus, quod instituerat ipse non peregit. Idipsum tradunt quidam de D. Johanne Latio, vulgò de Laet, Antwerpiano, viro quidem eruditiss. & in hâc linguâ longè diuque versatissimo. Abrahamus etiam Whelocus, eruditus ille linguæ Arabicæ apud Cantabrigienses dum viveret professor, ad istius linguæ studium magni ejusdem & fautoris & magistri, prænobilis scil. perdocti & pii Equitis, D. Henrici Spelmanni, (qui, ut recte de eo D. Gillius, equestrem dignitatem variâ eruditione, & inprimis magnâ antiquitatis notitia cumulavit:) partim exemplo, partim cohortatione, inductus, in eadem admodum doctus tandem evasit: Is autem, ut linguæ istius promovendæ & ampliandæ studio, Saxonicam venerabilis Bedæ Historiæ Ecclesiasticæ versionem (Alfredo Regi, nec immerito, ascriptam) unà cum Annotationibus satis prolixis, atque allegationibus ex Homiliis Saxonicis multò prolixioribus, & Chronologiâ, Saxonicâ, Latinâ à seipso additâ translatione, in lucem emisit: sic etiam in suæ ante Leges Saxonicas denuo editas, & in eodem volumine prioribus annexas, Præfationis extremo, Saxonicum à se construendum & componendum Glossarium sponte promisit: obiit autem & ipse re infectâ.

5. Aliquot jam ante ejus obitum annis, prædictus ille, & nunquam mihi sine honore nominandus amicus, D. Mericus Causabonus, in suo, De linguâ Anglicâ vetere tractatu, cum multa alia de me perhonorificè; tum de Dictionarii particulatim Saxonici publicandi consilio, si tempora magis favorabilia contingerent; publice testatus fuerat. Amicorum etiam meorum alii quidam studiorum meorum conscii, amicos suos in operis istiusmodi à nobis susceptI cum spe quadam expectationem adduxerunt: quam non imminutam, sed auctam potius percepi à meo ad calcem Historiæ Anglicanæ Scriptorum antiquorum à Cornelio Bee bibliopola Londinensi, (viro sanè, ob plures melioris notæ libros ipsius curâ & impensis in vulgus emissos, de re literariâ bene merito, adeoque apis instar industrio ut nomen ei optimè conveniat:) non ita pridem editorum, Glossario: in quo frequens verborum phrasiumque Saxonicarum tractandarum & exponendarum dabatur occasio: ut taceam meas Saxonicorum in Monastico Anglicano translationes Latinas. Ab eo certè tempore, quotidiana multorum instantiâ & eflagitatione ad opus istud suscipiendum & absolvendum impulsus sum: pluribus interim viris scientissimis cordatiss. mihique amicissimis, non tantum (facultatum mearum tenuitate perhumaniter pensatâ) sumptus ad impressionem offerentibus, aut in se recipientibus: sed & securum me de operis non mediocri cum domi tum foris acceptatione; saltem (inter exteros) apud Philoteutones, (omnes scil. Teutonicarum Antiquitatum, sive linguæ illius amplæ & antiquæ studiosos, in quâ lingua Anglo-Saxonica cum Teutonicâ participat; utpote quarum utraque, quamvis dialecto quidem & idiomatibus aliquantulum varia & diversa, originitus eadem sit:) esse jubentibus. Quibus omnibus cumulus accessit, minerval sive stipendium quoddam annuum, eo nomine, ut olim D. Hen. Spelmanni f. m. munificentiâ, in Abrahamum illum Whelocum collatum, & ab eo postea dum vixerit receptum; sic etiam ab hærede tam philologicarum dotum quàm fortunarum ejusdem nobiliss. Herois, præclaro scil. ipsius Henrici nepote, Rogero Spelmanno, armigero, D. Johannis, Equitis aurati, filio tali parente dignissimo, in me ex parte translatum. His igitur adductus, licet invite satis, (utpote qui me tali & tanto operi imparem mihi probè conscius fuerim:) nec amplius cunctandum ratus ad opus me accinxi, nec antea conquievi, quàm, pro virili, suscepto munere defungerer.

6. Ad

6. Ad pensum igitur & provinciam (quantùm, ut dixi, per otium licuit:) me accingens, animumque intendens, quanquam proprio labori non diffiderem; & jam do ni esset unde sumerem, quod sufficere poterat: in omnia tamen intentus, quæ juvare poterant, Jocelini & Noeli collectiones diligenter perscrutatus, ab utroq; quacunq; deesse in mea animadverti, decerpsi. Et quia plerosq; priùs nominatos authores, aliáq; veterum cujuscunq; generis monumenta Saxonica quæ vel in publicis vel privatis servantur Bibliothecis, minimè eos latuisse aut diligentiam fugisse deprehendi; eò diligentius laborandum mihi credidi, ut quæ illis minus nota & tractata; aut etiam penitus ignota fuerant; in iis potissimè mea occuparetur industria. Hujus autem generis, Liber ille Medicus in Bibliothecâ quondam regiâ: Paraphrasis etiam Saxonica, (cujus usum RR. totius Hiberniæ Primati, Jacobo Usserio, Archiepiscopo Armachano, viro quidem incomparabili, & seculorum omnium memoriâ dignissimo, me debere gratus fateor:) & Codicilli non pauci, sive donationum tabulæ, (Land-bocs. i. prædiorum libri, eo ævo nuncupati) in Regestis, & Cathedralium Ecclesiarum aliarumq; religiosarum ædium armariis, archivis & scriniis quandóq; repertæ: ex quibus quantum nobis emolumentum fuerit, res ipsa, vel tacentibus nobis, satis docebit.

7. Isti quidem modò nominati libri duo (Medicus & Paraphrastes) multum mihi facessérunt negotium. Cum enim non, ut cæteri omnes aut eorum plurimi, fuerint translati: cumque posterior maximè, adeo veteri, obsoleto, poetico, tumido, affectato, mystico & ænigmatico scriptus fuerit stylo phrasique, tantáque abundarit insolitorum hyperbatorum & transpositionum copiâ, (cum quibus, ut doctiss. Wormio, Literat. Runic. pag. 192. bene monitum, veterum Cantilenæ, in lectoris, licèt eruditi, magnam sæpenumero molestiam, mirè abundant:) diu cogebar insistere, multúmq; temporis insumere, in quamplurimis utriusq; præsertim posterioris, libri dictionibus phrasibúsque enucleandis & eruendis. Neque tamen ullâ nostrâ, quanta erat in nobis, industriâ, patientiâ, peritiâ denique consequi potuimus, ut in omnibus nos extricaremus & expediremus: adeo ut necesse fuerit nonnunquam, certâ & positivâ missâ vocis expositione, probabilem tantùm & conjecturalem afferre, taliq; contentum esse.

8. Superest ut Lectorem de aliquibus ad meliorem operis intellectum, & lectionem magis utilem, necessariis præmoneam. Inprimis igitur intelligat, quod etiamsi priorum collectionum exemplum minimè sequutus fuerim, quæ (præsertim Joceliniana, quam in suo exemplari omnino sequitur Denvesius:) e jusdem vocis, variatæ, si nomen, in casus; si verbum autem, in modos & tempora, repetitionibus plenæ sunt, quod ad augendam molem libri potiùs, quàm lectoris utilitatem pertinere credidi: non una tamen vox est (nisi egregiè mendosa, aut adeo miserè corrupta ut vix ulli conjecturæ locus fuerit:) in illorum monumentorum Saxonicorum, inspectioni & usui meo expositorum, aliquo, (præter eas quas priores quoque collectiones exhibebant, plenius, & certiùs in nostris ut plurimum nunc exposuis:) quam sciens prudensque prætermisi; aut in cujus explicatione & illustratione, (si plus solito obscura) propriis & idoneis exemplis eo fine adhibitis, parcus fui. Vocem insuper Teutonicam in Cornelii Kiliani & Petri Dasypodii Lexicis repertam plerumque addidi, modò eam Saxonico affinem deprehenderim; quod ita sæpe contigisse minus mirum, cum (ut dudum ipsemet observavi) utraq; lingua, cum Belgicâ, Danicâ, Suecicâ, Islandicâ, Norvegicâ, aliisque linguis affinibus, communis sit originis & prosapiæ: unde etiam factum, quòd adeo frequentem Otfridi, Willerami, Chauceri, & aliorum quorundam venerandæ antiquitatis scriptorum, fecerim mentionem.

9. Proximò, in tyronum & aliorum in hac linguâ prorsus imperitorum, aut parum versatorum, gratiam & utilitatem Saxonicorum in Latinum sermonem translationes meas plerunque verbatim dedi: studiò politum illum & elaboratum fugiens stylum à D. Gul. Lambardo in suâ Legum Saxonicarum versione tantopere affectatum, ut parum aut nihil inde lector ad linguam originalem (Saxonicam scilicet quâ scribuntur:) intelligendam, commodetur.

10. Tertiò, noverit, quòd per P.S. Paraphrasin intelligo Saxonicam, mihi, ut dixi, à RR. D. Usserio commodatam, & à Francisco Junio, suis in Willeramum Observationibus, pag. 248. adeo celebratam, atque ab eo magno quo pollet judicio & sagacitate, Cædmono illi, Ceadmano, vel Cedmono, cujus meminit Beda, Histor. Eccles. li. 4. cap. 24. ascriptam. Per L.M. autem intelligendus Liber Medicus, (vel. medicinalis, ut in fronte inscriptus) à me è Regiâ, ut dixi, bibliothecâ mutuatus, in tres partes (ut earum singulæ in capitula) distributus. Per L. Sc. vel, Lib. Scint. & si quid tale; Liber Scintillarum dictus, in eadem bibliothecâ repertus. Per N. Vocabularium illud Noëlianum supra memoratum; ut per D. Joceliniarum, à Denvesio, ut monui, descriptum. Per MS. vetustum quoddam Glossarium sive Dictionarium Saxonicum manuscriptum; duplex illud, in bibliothecâ Cottonianâ repertum: quorum unum formâ longius sed tenuius altero, in folio scilicet, sed angusto; alterum autem brevius at spissius, in octavo. Per Lanc. Lancastrenses intelligendi, qui (Noëlo, viro, ni fallor, Lancastrensi, observante) ita hodiéq; loquuntur. Per N. L. vetus illa Latinorum formula, Non Liquet: ut per E. (vel V.) G. (quod vulgare est:) Exempli, vel Verbi gratiâ.

11. Addo, quod ubi post vocem aliquam Saxonicam, sive expositionem ejus, hujusmodi modi notarum (vel, literarum) aliqua, viz. MS. N. D. L. M. L. Sc: aut ſimilis alia, ſine ulteriori per conjecturam, aut aliter, additione, reperiatur: ibi utique hærere, & incertum eſſe, aut de voce ipſâ, aut de expoſitione, authorémque meum ideo nominare, & fidem ejus teſtari, Lector intelligat.

12. Notandum inſuper, quòd quemadmodum per totum opus nomina adjectiva in Lic, vel lice, terminantia adverbiaſcunt & adverbialiter uſurpantur: ſic etiam participia activa, ſive præſentis temporis, (exeuntia in end, &c.) ſunt (ut apud Latinos) nomina ſubſtantiva, & ſubſtantivè uſurpantur: participiis interim paſſivis, & præteriti temporis verbis, unam & eandem ſortientibus terminationem; conſimiliter exeuntibus in ed, &c.

13. Obſervandum adhuc, quòd voces (verba præſertim, verbalia & participia paſſiva) ſimpliciter & per ſe, inter pura puta ſimplicia, non repertæ; inter compoſitas & incipientes ab a, be, for, ge, vel to, (inter vocabula ſcil. quibus augmenta illa initialia, ſive præpoſitiones quas vocant inſeparabiles, præfiguntur) quærendæ ſunt.

14. Addendum reſtat & monendum, Anglo-Saxones, nonnullas literas, præſertim vocales & diphthongos, ſæpe confudiſſe, eaſq; indifferenter uſurpaſſe. V. G. a & æ: ut ac, æc, quercus: aceſ, æceſ, ager. Item æ & ea: ut æl, eal, omnis. Item æ & e: ut æ, ea. aqua: æce, ece, æternus. Item æ & oe: ut æghwæs, oeghwes. ubique: æghwylc, oeghwelc, unuſquiſque. Item æ & y: ut ælc, ylc. quiſque. Item e, i, & y: ut eland, iland, yland, inſula: efel, yfel, malus: elðan, ilðan, ylðan, cunctari: embe, imbe, ymbe, circa, circum. &c. Hinc autem comparativa apud eos indifferenter exeunt in aſt, æſt, eſt, iſt, oſt, uſt, yſt: participia præſentis temporis in and, end, end, ind, ond, und, ynd: præteriti verò in ad, æd, ed, id, od, ud, yd: pro variâ ſcilicet vel ævi vel loci dialecto. Nec in vocalibus & diphthongis ſolùm frequens hoc, ſed & in quibuſdam aliis literis conſonantibus. E. G. b, f, & u: ut oben, ofen, ouen, ſupra, ſuper, ultra, trans: fot, uot, pes. Item c & k: ut cyning, kyning, Rex: cyð, kyð, cognatio: aceſ, akeſ, ager. Item c & q: ut cpen, quen, Regina, uxor, mulier: cpið quið, matrix. Sic etiam g & i conſonans: ut gagulfullan, iagulfelgan. gargarizare: geo, ieo, olim, quondam: geogud, ieogud, juventus, &c. cum ejuſmodi multis aliis in eorum monumentis paſſim obviis. Quæ quidem literarum commutationes, crebras in hoc opere pariunt ejuſdem vocis vario modo ſcriptæ repetitiones, quas apud benevolos lectores de eis ſic præmonitos excuſatum iri ſperamus. Quædam etiam interdum occurrunt primitiva ſine derivativis, ut è contra derivativa quæ ſine primitivis, prout inter legendum ſeſe mihi obtulerunt. Licèt enim alterum ex altero, analogiæ ope, facilè plerúmque formari poſſit; verba præſertim & participia; mihi tamen id juris ſumere nequaquam auſus ſum: ſed nec tutum ſatis credidi; ut qui lingas non tam analogiâ, quam conſuetudine, (quæ ſæpe analogiæ contraria reperitur:) omnes aut pleraſq; potiſſimùm nihil à multis obſervatum memineram: ut non malè lectori conſulere me crederem, ſi quæ & quot reperi, nec plura, nec alia, exhiberem.

15. Tacendum autem non eſt, Chronologiam Saxonicam à D. Wheloco in lucem editam & tranſlatam, cæteris ferè omnibus ejuſmodi libris & monumentis (libro medico, & paraphraſi Saxonicâ, duntaxat exceptis) adeo frequentiùs ideo citatam eſſe atq; allegatam, quòd Latinam ipſius in omnibus aut locorum ejuſmodi quamplurimis verſionem valde mendoſam repererim. Et quamvis ipſe laudem & æſtimationem haud quæſiturus ſim ab aliorum vituperatione, maximè mortuorum, & tantæ quantæ fuit ille dum vixit ſcientiæ, candoris & modeſtiæ: mei tamen officii credidi (occaſione tam pulchrâ datâ magis quàm captatâ) lectori potiùs conſulere; ne errata ejuſmodi, haud voluntaria licèt, non mediocris tamen ut plurimum momenti, incautus imbiberet. Interim verò, ne viri magni manibus, ejuſve eruditionis famæ nunquam intermorituræ, protervè inſultare, vel in minimo (quod abſit) derogare videar: ipſum in illo opere publicando, quam optimè de hac linguâ, de me, de publico deniq; meruiſſe; meq; per id in hoc ſtudio non parum profeciſſe, lubens fateor, ingenuéq; profiteor: præſertim verò per Regulas illas Saxonicas, ſive obſervationes grammaticales, Bedæ ſuo Saxonico-Latino præfixas; quas ego tanti quidem æſtimo, ut eas linguæ iſtius ſtudioſis, ut eis apprimè utiles, non ſolùm habeam commendatas; ſed & in eorum gratiam, ac authoris laudem, eaſdem regulas (licèt à memetipſo, ex obſervatione propriâ, ſparſim in hoc opere, cum multis aliis, ultra quæ ſuperiùs monita, pleraſque jam exhibitas:) verbatim exſcripſerim, & hîc infra conjunctim denuo publicaverim.

16. Nec mihi Lector vitio vertat, quòd in Saxonicorum verborum expoſitionem, voces quandoq; inſeruerim Latino-barbaras, bonis & claſſicis authoribus omnino inauditas. Monendum autem interim Grammaticam istam, etiamsi Latino-Saxonicam vulgò nuncupatam, linguam tamen Saxonicam, ejusque discendi docendiq; artem non tractare: Latinam verò veterum Grammaticorum (Donati, Prisciani, &c.) grammaticam, ejusve leges & regulas præcipuas, eundem Ælfricum in eodem opere exhibuisse, atq; in gratiam juventutis Anglicæ, in linguam ævi sui vernaculam plerúnq; transtulisse. Quo pacto, licèt ipse linguam Saxonicam ex professo non docuerit, rem tamen artemq; grammaticam non Latinâ solùm sed & Saxonicâ linguâ pertractando, singulasque orationis partes ordine grammatico linguâ vernaculâ percurrendo, (nominum scil. declinationes, verborum conjugationes, &c.) Saxonicæ linguæ etiam grammaticè studiosis præsentibus & posteris, haud parum eum consuluisse nemo sobrius, opinor, inficias ibit. Pulchra quidem & perantiqua apud nostrates sunt ejusdem Grammaticæ, quæ vidimus & inspeximus, exemplaria: hæc inter, Regium illud ad S. Jacobi, antiquum admodum & satis authenticum, omnino sequuti sumus. Glossarium autem illud paulò remotius petitum est: utpote quod ex pervetusto quodam exemplari MS. inter Petri Pauli Rubeni, Bruxellensis, ordinis equestris viri, & Pictoris præstantissimi, cimelia reperto, à Francisco Junio, F. F. viro quidem bonarum artium & linguarum peritissimo, (cui quidam humanissimus Rubeni, defuncto patre, filius idem exemplar communicavit:) integrè descriptum, in patriam reductum, ac boni publici promovendi, hujusq; operis sub prelo jam tum sudantis ornandi & absolvendi gratiâ, perhumaniter nostri juris factum fuerit. Hoc autem in Glossario non pauca vocabula in Lexico nostro penitus omissa, ut nusquam alibi nobis occurrentia, non sine grato linguæ istius studiosorum emolumento, sparsim exhibentur. Quædam etiam apud nos, aut non omnino, aut obscurè saltem & incertè explanata, illic etiam & variè quandoque scripta, & clariùs aliquando certiúsq; explicata, Lector inveniat. Erratis interim & mendis non vacat, tam in Latinis quàm Saxonicis, describentium olim, ut opinor incuriâ: inter quæ (ut voces taceam obsoletas & Latino-barbaras, sed & antiquatam etiam & pro more seculi planè barbaram in multis cacographiam, quam tamen excolere, aut in minimo mutare, non omnino auti sumus:) majora quidem, & animadversione magis indigentia, ut plurimum annotanda; cætera Lectori, ut aut in corrigendo ingenium, aut in condonando clementiam exerceat, relinquenda duximus.

18. Ut proœmium istud extendam expleamve, Saxonicæ linguæ antiquitatem, amplitudinem, utilitatem, aut alias ipsius dotes & merita prosequendi & enarrandi gratiâ, nemo hominum speramus expectat. Meo certè judicio, hoc pensum à pluribus viris longè doctissimis, & præsertim (ut alios taceam) ab eruditissimo & æternùm honorando amico, D. Merico Casaubono, in accurato De Lingua Anglicâ vetere sive Saxonicâ tractatu, opere quidem, unà cum authore, summis summæ eruditionis viri* encomiis ornato, tam bene susceptum, & adeo fœliciter jam est absolutum, ut si illud aggrederer, non aliud quàm actum agere, & post Homerum Iliadem scribere. messem deniq; in alienam falcem meam immittere, meritò judicari possem.

To his worthily esteemed friend, and learned Antiquary,

Mr. WILLIAM SOMNER,

on his elaborate Treasury of the Saxon tongue intit'led

Dictionarium Saxonico-Latino-Anglicum.

WHat mean'st thou man? think'st thou thy learned page,
And worthy pains will relish with this age?
Think'st that this Treasury of Saxon words
Will be deem'd such amidd'st unletter'd swords?
Boots it to know how our forefathers spoke
Ere Danish, Norman, or this present yoke
Did gall our patient necks? or matters it
What Hengist utter'd, or how Horsa writ?
Last, think'st that we, who have destroy'd what e're
Our Grandsires did, will with their language bear?
That we (who have all famous Monuments
Raz'd, and defeated thus all good intents
Of former Piety:) will honour give
To antique Characters? shall Paper live,
And Inke, when Brasse and Marble can't withstand
This iron ages violating hand?
Or that this title, Dictionarium
Saxonico-Latino-Anglicum,
Will sell thy book? think'st that the Readers itch
Of knowing much, the Author will inrich?
Thy Barb'rous Saxon, with the heathen Greek
And profane Latine, buyers may go seek:
Together with the Hebrew, and the rest,
Which are the language of that Romish beast.
Our Mother-tongue well nos'd, with a wry face,
And eyes inverted now hath chiefest grace.
'Tis strange, but true: our modern Rhetorick
Both heales a Brother and makes others sick.
So that thy trade is out of fashion, friend:
Loe, 'gainst Antiquities we now contend.
Our quarel is against the former age:
'Gainst our dead Fathers we dire Warres do wage.
Hadd'st thou some Bible-Dictionary made;
A Concordance, or dealt in such like trade:
Hadd'st thou some Gospel-truths, some common place,
Presented to this fighting-preaching race:
Or to our sword-Divines assistance lent
By Paraphrase, Expounding, or Comment:
Thou mightst have (haply) found more Readers: now
The many won't thy learned pains allow.
Yet be not thou discourag'd, worthy friend;
Thy oyle and pains in vain thou do'st not spend.

All

All are not Fighters; nor all Preachers are:
All are not Saints; nor for the cauſe declare:
All are not Godly; nor Reformers all;
Nor build up Chriſt by letting Churches fall.
There yet are left ſome ſober, pious, wiſe,
Learned, diſcreet, who will thy labour prize:
Some Martyrs yet of Truth: ſome who adore
The ages paſt, and preſent do deplore;
Some who dare honeſt be: who learning love:
Fear not; ſuch will thine induſtry approve.
O happy thou! who do'ſt thy ſelf enjoy
Sequeſtred from the World; free from th' annoy
Of bluſt'ring times: thou do'ſt ſecurely ſit
Inriching both thine own and others wit.
Th' Ambition of the great ones; nor their fears
Diſturb thine honeſt quiet: nothing ſcares
Thee midd'ſt thy learned guard of books: there thou
Happier then Princes may'ſt thy ſelfe avow:
Whoſe fates thou may'ſt with unconcern'd thoughts read;
And ſo compare the living with the dead.
Proceed (brave ſoul) nor (ſince the wicked rage
Of profane hands, and a deſtroying age
Threatens to ruin what Antiquity
To us hath left:) let thy pen idle be.
'Tis true: we of thy learned diligence
Have had a taſt *; which onely wak'd our ſence.
We do a fuller meale expect from thee:
Thou muſt not onely whet, but ſatisfy
Our craving appetite. Do thy ſelf right;
Do us; the future times: more largely write.
Nor to one Town confine thy ſtraiter care:
Thy hands more ample ruins muſt repair.
Loe; the whole Kingdome call's thee: in time ſave
It's falling Monuments: them from the grave
Reſcue: that thy worth with the ages crimes
May be compar'd by the ſucceeding times.

TO THE MUCH ADMIRED ANTIQUARY,

my honoured friend, Mr William Somner, the great Restorer of the SAXON Tongue.

HAILE bold Researcher! with thy rich returnes
From the darke coasts of Monuments and Urnes.
Like St Pauls storme, all thy vast Travells ar
Through times long nights, without a Sun or Starre.
At most, * Olibius gloomy lampe doth light
Thy Pen, which would but weaker Authors fright.
Once have thy junior Armes a Cities weight
Sustein'd, and safely plac'd it out of Fate.
Had lofty Carthage bred but such a Sonne,
Romes Triumphs had been lesse, That lesse undone.
Faire Corinth and her Thais till this day
Had both survived in Effigie.
But these are past retrive, and now thy Care
Doth homewards bend, with piety that farre
Exceeds Anchises gratefull Son; for he
Shew'd but a single Antipelargy.
One dry old man, but for the Trojan fire
Too light had been, to make him sweate or tyre.
But thy more filial shoulders stooping bend,
Do reverence at once, and succour lend
To all our Fathers dust, which Time, alas!
Had bury'd deepe ith' bottome of his glasse.
A Language lost from th' Archives and from Thee
Receives a happy Palingenesy.
Thus from thy teeming head, and fertile braine,
Minerva-like, the Saxons live againe.
Wellcome great Hengist, and thy Brother too.
'Tis no invasion, but a Visit now.
Our wakefull beacons serve, not as before,
To give alarm's; but light you to our shore:
And with their best Bitumen blazing they Shall make the Night corrivall with the Day.
We are your Owne, you Ours: wee'l now forget
Our semal French, and Norman Sibbolet.
Hence Moot; Vous-avez hence: for now we heare
Our Lawes with an intelligible Eare;
And after all our Feuds, reduc'd to sence,
'Tis hop'd we now may learne Obedience.
Besides, yee men of steel; 'twill be your care
To list your names in this Vocabular.
Here may you learne that Cabalistick breath,
Which once to th'world dispenced life and death.
Old-English gave Pannonia law, with Greece,
And all the Tract from Spaine to th'Hebrides.
To these commanding sounds great Empires threw
Their Scepters downe: the frighted Eagles flew
And quit their perch: the Capitol obeys:
And now Honorius flyes a thousand wayes.
Since when Rome is not Rome, and changing aire
The Hectick birds to Germany repaire.

* De lucernâ Olibii vide Pet. Appian. de Antiq. * Canterburies Antiquities.

Causab. de ling. vet. Anglic. Cuspinian de vit. Cæsarum.

Thus

Thus from parental-monuments we can
Whole volumes ſend to Bodleys Vatican:
And with great Men and deeds (what e're we ow)
Wee'l repay Plutarch and the Decads too.
And now, deare Somner, you are grown too high
For minor rithme and rurall poeſy.
Take up your roome ith' ſchooles: and when 'tis ſayd
Here Zeno is, this for Cleanthes made;
There Caſaubon doth ſtand, That's Spelman right:
O then let th' Accent ſtill on Somner light.

Sic inter Corylos (ut potuit)

Ita Lambardus in rerum & verbor. explicatione Legibus Angloſaxon. præfixa. Verſtegan autem lingua vernacula ſic : "The triall by "red hot iron, called Fyre- "ordeal, was uſed upon accu- "ſations without manifeſt "þzof (though not without "ſuſpition that the accuſed "might be faulty) and the "party accuſed and denying "the delict, was adjudged to " take red hot iron and to hold " it in his bare hand, which " after many prayers and in- " vocations that the truth " might be manifested, he must " adventure to do or yield " himself guilty; and so re- " ceive the punishment that " the law according to the " offence committed, should a- " ward him. The trial called " hot-water-ordeal, was in ca- " ses of accusation as is afore- " said, of glowing iron, the " party accused and also sus- " pected being appointed by " the judge, to put his armes " up to the elbowes in seeth- " ing hot water, which after " sundry prayers and invoca- " tions he did, and was by the " effect that followed, judged " faulty or faultlesse. Cold- " water-Ordeal was the triall " which was ordinarily used " for the common sort of peo- " ple, who having a cord tied " about them under their " armes, were cast into some " river, and if they sunk down " unto the bottom thereof un- " till they were drawn up, " which was within a very " short limited space, then " were they held guiltlesse: but " such as did remain upon the " water were held culpable, be- " ing (as they said) of the " water rejected and kept up. " By a division of fire-ordeal (with Lambard) into two sorts, he assignes and adds another manner of it; that of " going blindfolded with their " bare feet over certain plough " shares made red hot, and " laid a little distance one be- " fore another: and if the " party either in passing " through them did chance " not to tread upon them, or " treading upon them recei- " ved no harm, then by the " judge he was declared inno- " cent. Thus he: adding with- all that " this kind of triall " was also practised in Eng- " land upon Emma the mo- " ther of king Edward the " confessor, who was accused " of dishonesty with Alwyne " Wishop of Winchester, and " being led blind-folded unto " the place where the glowing " irons were laid, went for- " ward with her bare feet, " and so passed over them; and " being gone past them all, " and not knowing whether " she were past them or not, " said, O good Lord, when shall " I come to the place of my pur- " gation. And having her eyes " uncovered, and seeing her " self to have passed them, she " kneeled down and gave " thanks to God for manife- " sting her innocency by her " preservation from being " burt. Thus Verstegan. But because as that sort of Ordeal is not, as the rest, found in our Saxon Lawes, so neither is that particular story of Queen Emms purgation, well warranted from history; the writer of her life, (who was her contemporary) nor any other of our elder Historians, making any mention of it, so that (with some others) I hold it for no better then a Monkish fiction, or a meer old wives fable: for these reasons, I say, I wish my Reader not to reckon this for any of the kinds of Ordeal ever practised in England; as neither (untill the time of the Normans: for before I cannot trace it in any of our Lawes or stories) that of Camp-fight, Duell, or single combat, which he reckons and recites for another kind of Ordeal.

Welinga-pord. Walingfordia, primaria olim Attrebatiorum urbs, Antonino & Ptolemæo, Galleva, al. Galeva, perperam (ita Camdenus) pro Galleni, dicta. Walling-ford in Berkshire. Þeopa þnidde gepeohr pær neah þæpa ea þe man hæt Temese. neah þampordа be man hæt Pelingapord. (Ita Alfredus Rex, ante annos 700. in Anglosaxonica Orosii interpretatione, li. 6. c. 9. ubi de Julii Cæsaris cum Britannis prælijs). i. verbatim; Eorum tertium prælium fuit juxta aquam (vel, flumen) Thamesim dictam, prope vadum Walingford vocatum. Which authority I the rather cite as induced by it to believe, that either here, (at Wallingford) or very neere hereabours it was that Cæsar with his army passed the Thames into the confines of Cassibelan. For albeit he might intend, and perhaps attempt, a passage at that place neere Oatlands in Surrey where certaine stakes to this day called Coway stakes, were by the Britanns pitched downe both on the bank or shore and under the water, on purpose to prevent it, yet the Romans discovering the stratagem, to avoid and shun the danger and difficulty of fording it over there, in all likelihood marched on to or towards Walingford, and there making over encountred the Britans, who not able to stand the charge betook themselves to flight. That indeed they did not ford it over just at that place so bestuck with stakes, is plaine enough by Orosius, followed verbatim of venerable Bede, where speaking of the stakes, he saith: Quod ibi à Romanis deprehensum & vitatum est, &c. Adde to this (as what makes it much more probable) that Gulielmus Pictavensis, in the account he gives of his Master, the Norman Conquerors acts, making a parallel betwixt Cæsar and him, and shewing how much more happy and successefull the latter was than the former in atchieving his victory, gives instance in this (among some other) one particular: Cum idem Imperator ad flumen Tamisim pervenisset, in fines Cassivellauni, qui contra se bellum administrabat, exercitum ducens, in adversa ripa hostes instructi obtabant. Ægerrime milites Romani vada transierunt, ex aqua capite solo extantes. At cum in eandem regionem Dux Normannorum adventaret, obviam ei clementiam deprecando processerunt Civitates & municipia. Militibus ejus trajectum ultra flumen ponte, si id collibuisset imperare, sine mora paravissent. So he, in his Gesta Guilielmi Ducis Normannor. &c. p. 210. Now certain it is, that Walingford was the place whither Duke William, marching from Dover through Kent which had yeilded to him, and declining London at present standing out in opposition to him, betooke himselfe, fording it over the Thames there, and having there sate him downe, thither it was that Stigand the Archbishop of Canterb. and other Grandees, deserting Edgar Atheling, repaired to him, rendring and submitting themselves unto him as the same Author hath it, pag. 235.

Incipit Præfatio hujus Libri.

EGO Ælfricus ut minus ſapiens has excerptiones de Priſciano minore, vel majore vobis puerulis tenellis ad veſtram linguam transferre ſtudui. Quatenus perlectis octo partibus Donati, in iſto libello poteſtis utramque linguam videlicet Latinam & Anglicam veſtræ teneritudini inferere, interim uſque quo ad perfectiora perveniatis ſtudia. Novi namque multos me reprehenſuros quod talibus ſtudiis meum ingenium occupare voluiſſem, ſcilicet grammaticam artem ad Anglicam linguam vertendo; ſed ego deputo hanc lectionem inſcientibus puerulis, non ſenibus aptandam fore. Scio multis modis verba poſſe interpretari, ſed ego ſimplicem interpretationem ſequor, faſtidii vitandi cauſa. Si alicui tamen diſplicuerit noſtra interpretatio, dicat quando vult, nos contenti ſumus ſicut didicimus in ſchola Athelwoldi venerabilis Preſulis, qui multos ad bonum imbuit. Sciendum tamen quod ars grammatica multis in locis non facile Angliçæ linguæ capit interpretationem, ſicut de pedibus, vel metris, de quibus hiç reticemus, ſed æſtimamus ad inchoationem tamen hanç interpretationem parvulis prodeſſe poſſe ſicut jam diximus. Miror valde quare multi corripiant ſyllabas in proſa, quæ in metro breves ſunt, cum proſa abſoluta ſit à lege metri, ſicut pronuntiant pater Bryttonicè, & malus, & ſimilia, quæ in metro habentur breves. Mihi tamen videtur melius invocare Deum patrem honorificè productâ ſyllabâ quam Bryttonicè corripere, quia nec Deus arti grammaticæ ſubjiciendus eſt. Valete O Pueruli in Domino.

* Balæo, Pitſeo, Voſſio, 180. perperam: Saxonicâ numerandi ratione, de qua nos in voce hund ſeoſontiȝ, non percepiâ.

EGO Ælfricus, poſtquam libros duos Sermonum octoginta * (è Latino) tranſtuleram. libellum hunc de literarum ſtudio, grammatica vulgo dicto, in ſermonem Anglicum vertendum duxi. Quoniam Grammaticæ clavis eſt librorum aperiens intellectum: & librum hunc pueris putavi profuturum, hujus artis inchoandæ gratiâ, donec ad majorem perveniunt intellectum. Unumquemque oportet quamcunque bonam artem ſcientem, eam aliis utilem reddere, & talentum ſibi à Deo concreditum aliis communicare; ne Dei pecunia jaceat, & ſervus dicatur inutilis, vinculiſque conſtrictus, ut Evangelium loquitur, in tenebras ejiceatur. Juvenes decet ſapientiam diſcere: ad ſenes vero ſpectat juvenes prudentia erudire: quod per doctrinam fides conſervetur, & quilibet ſapientiam amans fælix ſit futurus. Ei vero qui neque diſcere neque docere, ſi poterit, velit, alget illico ſacræ doctrinæ intellectus & paulatim à Deo diſcedit. Qui in Dei populum ſapientes manent Doctores, niſi in juventute doctrina fuerint imbuti? Et quomodo fides vigeat, Doctrina & Doctores ſi defecerint? Sedulo cavendum eſt igitur Dei ſervis, & viris eccleſiaſticis, ne in diebus noſtris ſacra deſerveat aut deficiat eruditio, quemadmodum per paucos aliquot jampridem annos in Angliȝa contigit; ita ut Anglicor. Sacerdotum nullus, donec Dunſtanus Archiepiſcopus, & Ætbelwaldus Epiſcopus in vita monaſtica (i. in Monaſteriis) doctrinam reſuſcitaſſent, Epiſtolam Latinè ſcribere, aut (Latine ſcriptam) interpretari poſſet. Attamen hunc librum multis ad doctrinam non dico profuturum: erit autem cuicunque placuerit, quædam in utrumque ſermonem introductio. Eum nunc in Dei nomine rogatum velim, qui librum hunc exſcribendum duxerit, ut exemplar accurate imitetur; quoniam in mea non eſt, (ut obſtem, vel impediam) poteſtate, ſi quis falſorum deſcriptorum culpâ in errorem inducatur; & ipſius id fiat periculo, non meo. Magni (ſane) reus erit mali falſus (qui fuerit) deſcriptor, niſi errata correxerit.
